—Jim Hinkle returned home, one day, last week, from Appleton City, Mo., where he had been visiting for several days. Jim says crops in that vicinity look about the same as they do here.
—The Holiness people are still holding interesting meetings at Fortescue, and there is quite a lot of interest being taken in the meetings. It is expected that the meetings will continue during the balance of the week.
—The Luminous Co. have pitched their tent in this town, and will put on a first-class moving picture show, every night. They will run three shows every night, and it is reported they have a good show. They came here from New Point.
—There was a "bent" in the road, but being able to see it, it was not a serious matter. Everybody is having a good time, and putting in the summer of alfalfa hay, and from banks and money service.
—Joe Patrick, Tom Bunker and George Cooper, of Fortescue neighborhood, attended O. W. Adams' birthday, last Saturday evening. It is said of George Cooper that he is sure to be some chauffeur, and is pretty handy with the Ford crank, too.

Mr. Smith reports all of the Bigelow people getting along nicely.
—Sam Pomeroy and family arrived last week from Avalon, Mo., and their household goods are expected some time during the week. They will move into the Carson property, recently vacated by W. A. Maier and family, and Sam will work in the bank, pushing a wheelbarrow and seeing that smile that won't come off. We welcome them to our city.
—Brother LeRoy Kopp is here, this week, from Fairview, Kansas, assisting with the Holiness meetings at Fortescue. Brother Kopp is the editor of "The Salvation Messenger," published at that point. The Holiness people are expecting Brother Irvin Duff and wife to arrive the first of the week from Kansas, where Brother Duff was just recently married, to assist with the meetings.
—Getting pretty dry in this neighborhood, and a good rain would be welcome. We have not had a good rain for over two weeks, which is very unusual. July 4th it rained north and south of us, but none here. Almost all of the wheat is in the shock in good shape. Barker Brothers started their threshing outfit, at Fred St. John's place, Monday morning, and the Morris Brothers started at Bart Coats'.
—Holt Brothers are putting their threshing outfit in shape and are ready to start this week.
—There was a good crowd from everywhere that visited Big Lake, last Sunday afternoon. The Holiness people held services in the afternoon, and two new members were baptized by Brother O. W. Adams. The Maitland and Fortescue ball teams crossed bats on the Iden diamond, and the game was a good one from start to finish, and the score was 5 to 4 in favor of the Fortescue team.
—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Larkins and daughter, Charlene, who were visiting with relatives and friends in Hiawatha and White Cloud, Kansas, returned home the latter part of last week.
—A good crowd last week, Geo. and Dick, by paying the Snows, interest in the Fortescue bank, and Dick was in charge of the opening of the bank as cashier, the opening this month. Dick and George are well and favorably known in this neighborhood as first-class business men, and there is no question of their making good. It is reported that our old friend, Brother Brownlee, will go to Connecticut, where he will engage in the banking business. Brother Brownlee has made many friends in this and Fortescue neighborhood who are sorry to see him leave us.

—Last Sunday, July 9, was Mrs. John C. Hinkle's 63rd birthday anniversary, and her daughters planned and carried out a very nice little surprise on her. Even Uncle John was surprised when the folks arrived and wanted to know why they did not let him in on the secret. A big dinner, with all of the good things to eat one could want, was spread on tables out in the grove, the day being an ideal one for a feast out in the open, and the feast was enjoyed by all present. Those who were there were: J. C. Hinkle and family, W. C. Brown and family, John Griser and family, J. N. Omohundro and family, S. M. Howard and family, J. G. Hinkle and family, J. E. Slater and family, E. E. Hinkle and family, L. E. Markland and family, B. L. Hinkle and family, Mrs. G. W. Hinkle, Mrs. G. H. Minton, Russell Taylor, Emory Hayes, and Mrs. A. H. Greene, Burns and Asby Greene, of Oregon. The day was very pleasantly spent in eating and visiting, and the guests departed, wishing Mrs. Hinkle many more birthday anniversaries.
—RUBE.

—Miss Ruth McElvally, of Mount

City, spent Wednesday and Thursday of last week with Mrs. E. L. Craig.
—Mr. and Mrs. Thayer and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Everson, of Forest City, spent the week-end at the Hill cottage on Big Lake.
—Miss Pauline Craig, who for the past week has been the guest of Mrs. E. L. Craig, returned to her home in King City, Sunday.
—Dr. and Mrs. Pierce, of Oregon, and Dr. and Mrs. Payne, of Abilene, Kansas, have been enjoying a week's outing at Big Lake.
—Last Monday, Fred St. John brought to Fortescue the first load of 1916 wheat. It tested 62 pounds to the bushel and brought 96 cents.
—Louis Malloy returned to his home in Elmo, Mo., Sunday. Mr. Malloy is a relative of the Craigs, and visited both Fortescue and Napier.
—Judge A. W. VanCamp met last week with the Big Tarkio Drainage board. They visited the bottom lands around Craig, Corning and Bigelow.
—The ball game at Big Lake, Sunday, resulted as usual, Fortescue winning, the score being 5 to 4. Fortescue has lost only one game this season, and expects that to be the last one to lose.
—Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Brown and daughter, Nellie, returned to Manhattan, Kansas, having visited relatives here the past few weeks. They were accompanied as far as St. Joseph by Mrs. Howard and Marie.
—A new soda fountain and ice cream parlor has been installed at Fred Rhetts'. Mr. Rhetts, being quite an electrician, has equipped his place with the latest electrical conveniences and modern appliances for an ice cream parlor.
—Last Friday, Geo. Poynter and his brother, Richard, of Bigelow, bought R. C. Brownlee's stock in the Bank of Fortescue. The price paid for shares is not known, but think it is rather a nice figure. Mr. Brownlee, about two years ago, organized the bank, and has since that time controlled it. Nothing more clearly demonstrates the ability of Mr. Brownlee than the growing success of the bank. He has been offered a more lucrative and influential position with the Phoenix Mutual Insurance Company, at Hartford, Connecticut. It is with the keenest regret that we see Mr. and Mrs. Brownlee leave the community.
—ITEMIZER.
—Mrs. Dan Vandevoske and daughter, Misses Delois and Alta, of Troy, Kansas, are spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Emory Frost.

To Our Friends in the Country

THIS CHAUTAUQUA is not an exclusive town affair. It was planned and put on for our friends in the country as well. We all want to make Chautauqua Week a real Holiday and Get-Together Time.

There will be great lectures and entertainments to enjoy at this Chautauqua. The kind you like.

We hope to meet you and all your family here during Chautauqua Week, and get to know each other better.

We, who are on the Chautauqua Committee, want you to come and have a good time, and then come back again. Let us try to live a little while by the way, and get something besides work out of life as we go along.

Hitch Up, or Crank Up, and Come On In

You'll want to hear HON. JOSEPH G. CAMP, "The South's Most Finished Orator," on the first night of the Chautauqua. HON. ALF TAYLOR, Ex-Governor of Tennessee, and brother of "Fiddling Bob," will speak on the afternoon of the third day, and DR. D. F. FOX, brilliant lecturer, that night.

GRANVILLE JONES, most popular of Chautauqua lecturers, will be here on the fourth night.

But we can't wait to tell you about the HIAWATHA INDIANS, who will appear on the sixth day. They are full blooded Ojibways and on the sixth night are going to give the great Hiawatha play. These Indians draw bigger crowds than any other Chautauqua attraction. They give a wonderful entertainment.

There's a world of other good things in music and entertainment: THE PILGRIM GIRLS AND HANNAH GOVE; THE WESTMINSTER CONCERT ENTERTAINERS; THE ARCADIAN SYMPHONY SEXTET; THE ALPINE YODLERS; LULU TYLER GATES; THE MUSICAL ARTS QUARTET; PROF. W. B. PATTY, the scientist—all these will be here—and more.

And here is something especially important. On the afternoon of the sixth day Prof. J. W. Henceroth, agricultural scientist and soil expert, will give his famous lecture-demonstration: "SCIENCE AND THE SOIL." This lecture will be thoroughly practical. As a progressive farmer or citizen you cannot afford to miss it.

Plan to attend every session. And be sure to bring the homelinks and neighbors with you.
